WILLIAM STOBBER DEAD

HE DIED AT HIS HOME IN SMITH-TON AT 5 O'CLOCK P. M.
WEDNESDAY.

A FORMER RAILWAY MAIL CLERK

Belonged to Modern Woodmen of America and Carried $3,000 Insurance in the Order—Thu-F Funeral Tomorrow.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Smithton, Mo., June 13.—William B. Stober, for nine years a Pettis county school teacher and for over a year a railway mail clerk on the Rock Island between St. Louis and Kansas City, died at 5 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. Susan Stober, in Smith-ton, death being caused by an abscess of the lungs.

No young man in the community was more respected or highly regarded than he, and the sad news of his death will cause many a heart to sicken and many an eye to moisten with tears.

Mr. Stober enjoyed a wide acquaintance all over the county, and what is more creditable, was worthy of it in every way. Never committing an unmanly or dishonorable deed, but living a true, honorable life, being a firm, true friend, a dutiful son and brother, his short career of useful endeavor is indeed worthy of emulation.

The deceased was born near Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 24, 1878, and with the exception of three years of infancy in his native state, had spent all his life in Missouri.

He grew to manhood near Smith-ton, attending the public schools here and afterwards taking a supplementary course in the Chillicothe Normal college. He taught for nine years in the public schools of Pettis county, rendering efficient and eminently satisfactory service wherever employed and no teacher was more deserely popular.

During the world's fair in St. Louis he was a government customs inspector at the fair grounds, and the high regard held for him by his colleagues and superior officers attested the character and efficiency of his work in the customs service.

After the fair he took up teaching again, only to resign to enter the railway mail service as a postal clerk, where he remained a year, until contracting a heavy cold, which settled on his lungs, he was finally forced, in January, to come home and make the last sad fight for his life.

All the aid that loving hearts and good medical attention could give, with the determined courage of the patient himself, repeatedly checked the course of the disease and gave hope of recovery, but death could not be denied, and at last ended the sufferings of this manly young fellow.

Mr. Stober leaves a widowed mother, Mrs. Susan Stober; two sisters, Miss Jennie Stober, of Smithton, and Mrs. Lee Harbin, of Elko, Nevada, and three brothers, George and Joseph Stober, of Sedalia, and Henry Stober, of Smithton.

The deceased was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and carried $3,000 insurance in that order. He was also a member of the Smithton Methodist church, and the funeral services will be held there Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. S. F. Beggs, the pastor. The following have been chosen as pall bearers: Guy Gibson, Angust Selken, Otto Preuss, John Miller, George Harris, Jacob Myers.

OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

By the Ladies' Label League of Sedalia Last Night.

The Ladies' Label League held a very enthusiastic meeting last night at Tillberry's hall and elected the following officers:

President—Jessie Cone.
First vice president—Emma Miller.
Second vice president—Dovie Elhoitz.
Record keeper—Belle King.
Financial secretary—Emma Behrer.
Treasurer—Doris Lawson.
Sergeant at arms—Clara Henry. or keeper—May Clifton.

A Sunday School Picnic.

Harry Carpenter's Sunday school class of the First M. E. church is enjoying a picnic at the parlors of the church this afternoon. Late in the afternoon supper will be served. The original intention was to hold the picnic at Thatcher's Ford on Flat Creek, but owing to rain the plan was altered.

Four Dresses Ruined.

Four ladies have had dresses ruined within the past few days by Ohio street loungers expectorating tobacco juice upon the garments while the women were passing along the thoroughfare.

Miss McDaniel is Hostess.

Miss Margaret McDaniel is entertaining at "590" at her home on West Seventh street this afternoon in honor of Miss Ada Stanley.

NOW THEY ARE PARTED

AGREED ON WEDDING DAY SEP-ARATION IF EITHER WAS DISSATISFIED.

THERE IS ANOTHER MAN IN CASE

In Fact, There May Be More Than One if What the Disgusted Husband Has to Say Is Gospel Truth.

Columbus, Ind., June 13.—Yesterday was the fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. George Layman, of this place, and when in the afternoon the wife handed Layman the keys to their home and left for the home of her parents in Noblesville, to remain permanently, the husband never entered a single protest.
When pressed for an explanation he told the following remarkable story of his marriage:

"When we procured our license to wed in Minneapolis, Minn., we entered into a contract to the effect that we were to separate on the wooden anniversary of our wedding if either party to the contract was dissatisfied, and that after being separated for thirty days either was to be privileged to file suit for divorce, and the other was not to contest the suit.

"This contract was duly recorded and we lived happily together until we came here, four months ago.
Since we came here I have at times surprised my wife driving in company with other men. I do not believe her guilty of criminal wrongdoing, but still I shall not live with her again."

Mrs. Layman has a remarkably pretty face and a fine figure.
Last night B. L. Davis, manager for a furniture house here, left Columbus. His present whereabouts are unknown.

FLAGS FOR THE KATY

All Those Used On the System Are Made in Sedalia.

For seventeen years the Ladies' Aid society of the First Congregational church of this city has had the contract for furnishing all of the flags on the entire Missouri, Kansas and Texas system, and shipments of 100 dozen have been made frequently.

There are four styles of these flags, viz:

Red, signifying danger.
White, a clear track.
Green, second section following.
Blue, car or engine undergoing repairs.

The company furnishes all of the material, and the ladies are paid one cent for each flag made.

The ladies consider the contract a good one, which is proven by the fact that they have held it for seventeen years.

Burial of Mr. Raiffeisen.

The remains of Carl Raiffeisen, who died at Syracuse, arrived here on the Commercial Traveler today.

The body was taken to the German Evangelical church, where services were conducted by Rev. Otto Press, after which the remains were taken to the city cemetery, where the interment was made. The pallbearers whose names were printed in yesterday's Democrat-Sentinel served.

ORCHARD BROKE DOWN

REMARKABLE NERVE OF WON-DERFUL CRIMINAL WAS LOST

AGAIN TELLS DETAILS OF MURDER

Wept Like a Child, but Soon Recovered Himself and Answered Questions in His Usual Even Voice.

Boise, Idaho, June 13.—After withstanding with marvellous strength of nerve and muscle the week's examination that was one prolonged confession of crime, Harry Orchard today broke down and for a few moments wept like a child.

His unerving came with the story of his conversion and the mention of King David's murder, a Biblical figure which is supposed to be Orchard's present guide.

The defense had given a solemn tone to the scene preceding the meeting between Orchard and Detective McParland, to whom he confessed, by showing that Orchard was first illegally brought to the penitentiary and thrust into almost solitary confinement. His only cell neighbor was a condemned murderer. Orchard soon recovered himself and answered further questions in his usual even voice.

The story was told to a hushed court room, the silence being broken only by the drone of his voice. He again repeated in detail the story of the assassination of Steunenberg.
The victim's son was in the room and listened to the tale.

Soon after court opened in the Haywood trial this morning Attorney Richardson for the defense caused some surprise by stating that the cross-examination of Orchard would end today.

Yesterday Orchard testified that he had written to Moyer from Wallace, Idaho, asking for some money. He said he had gone to Wallace after it was first proposed to kill Steunenberg. The witness today said he had had no direct answer to this letter, but as a result of it Simpkins gave him $100, which he said Haywood had sent him. Orchard admitted that he only had Simpkins' word as to where the money came from.

Met Governor Face to Face.
Former Governor Peabody and Harry Orchard met face to face this afternoon. Orchard shrank back and trembled. The former governor singlingly held out his hand, saying, "How are you, Orchard?"

Orchard broke down completely and said: "I am ashamed to look at you, sir. I am ashamed to speak to you."

Governor Peabody reassured him in a few words and Orchard replied:
"I am thankful I didn't kill you, and am spared the thought of that crime."

GRANTED THE ORDER

United States Judge Restrains State From Enforcing 2 Cent Law

Kansas City, June 13.—United States Judge McPheerson here this afternoon granted the petition of the eighteen railroads doing business in Missouri and issued a temporary order restraining the state officials from putting into effect both the maximum freight law and the two-cent passenger law recently passed by the legislature, which were to take effect June 21.

This means that the new laws can not be enforced until after a hearing is had by the court.

WILL RETURN TO ST. LOUIS

Last of Convicted Boodlers to Be Free Tomorrow.

Jefferson City, June 13.—Julius Lehman and Emil Hartmann will be "dressed out" of the prison at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, that is the technical term for discharging prisoners. They are the last of the St. Louis boodlers to be freed.

Both men will leave at noon for their homes in St. Louis, where it is understood each will be given a warm reception by his friends.

Serve Here as Bridesmaid

A marriage license was issued at Kansas City yesterday to Edward Eastman Cornelius and Miss Cleopatra Dix, both of Kansas City.

Miss Dix formerly resided here and is well and favorably known by many Sedalians. She served as bridesmaid at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. W. F.
Keyser, the latter formerly Miss Agnes Dalby.

Will Become Trained Nurse.

Miss Louise O'Connell, who has tendered her resignation as a Bell telephone operator, will leave soon for St. Louis, where she will begin training for the profession of a trained nurse.

Licensed to Wed.

A marriage license was issued today to Ben G. Mowey, of Mora, and Cora M. Leiter, of Sedalia.

THE "TRAFFIC" IN GIRLS

CHICAGO JURIST DECLARES HE CAN PROVE THE SYSTEM EXISTS NOW.

TRAPS IN MANY OF BIG CITIES

Tells How Unsuspecting Young Women Are Sold Into Slavery—Much Doing in Shop Lifting, Too.

Chicago, June 13.—Startling revelations concerning the white slave traffic and also concerning the criminal propensities of women were made here by Municipal Judge Newcomer at a banquet of the Men's club of the Austin Methodist Episcopal church.

The judge's hearers were amazed, and when he said: "I want to say right here that the white slave traffic does exist here in Chicago; right here under the nose of police protection; right here where we boast of our civilization, does the sale of young girls exist, girls who are sold for their beauty."

"I could give the names of scores of girls who have been sold into this white slave traffic, and I could also give the names of scores of young men who exist and thrive on the sale of these girls, the great majority of whom are from the country and are in utter ignorance of the traps and snares set by these wolves who pose as gentlemen.

"The white slave traffic not only exists in Chicago, but it is interstate and international. There are girls who are shipped to this city from outer points and are consigned to men right here in Chicago. There are girls who are shipped from Chicago and who are consigned to other traders."

"These are radical statements to make, gentlemen, but I am well informed upon what I speak. I may add that I have seven letters from different fathers in Chicago, asking me if I would not please find their daughters who had fallen into that deepest infamy."

"Down where the red lights blaze, and where the ribald merriment drifts from semi-curtained windows, and where women and young girls are arrayed in the gowns of shame, there is where christianity is needed most.
It remains for you, christian gentlemen, to get busy right here."

Another almost equally surprising statement was "It is astonishing to know how many women, women of repute, wives of preachers, wives of professional men, are tried for larceny, for shoplifting."
"Somehow, women can not resist the temptation of passing by articles in the department stores without picking them up and slipping them into their handbags."

Fire Alarm Sent in.

The fire department was called to E. G. Mostburg's home, 612 Wilkerson street, at 6:30 o'clock last evening, where an overflow of oil from a gasoline stove caused commotion. There was no damage.

Officials to Attend Funeral.

Mayor J. A. Collins requests all of the city officials to be present at Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning to attend the funeral of Prof. L. E. Friemel, late city sof.

IDENTIFIED HIM AGAIN

DECLARED TO BE FREDDIE SEY-MOUR, OF THE STRATH-

THE BOGUS "LORD" BARRINGTON

It Is Said That Acquaintances at Ottawa, Ontario, Will Assist Him —Is Now Under Sentence to Hang.

Ottawa, Ont., June 13.—The announcement by an evening paper that the man now in jail at Clayton, Mo., for the murder of Turfman McCann, has been identified as a titled Englishman who went to South Africa as a private in the Strathcona horse, created a stir here.

Officers and men of the troop now living in Ottawa have telegraphed offering assistance.

St. Louis, June 13.—The assertion that "Lord" Frederick Seymour Barrington, a prisoner in the Clayton jail under sentence to be hanged July 25 as the convicted slayer of James P. McCann in June, 1903, is a titled Englishman who served during the war in South Africa as a private in the Strathcona horse, is accepted here as simply another "identification" of the prisoner.

Percy Tressider, who claims to have been a former corporal in the British army, asserts he served through the late South African war with "Frederick Seymour." He held a lengthy consultation with the prisoner several days ago at the jail and then declared the prisoner is "Freddie" Seymour and member of a prominent English family. Yesterday Tressider was refused further admittance to the jail.

Mrs. Lillian E. Gates, of St. Louis, asserts that Barrington is really Barrington Seymour, son of a British general, and that she is well acquainted with the Barrington family.
She has been trying for the past year to establish his innocence. The police authorities assert Barrington is also identified as an English valet.

HUMMEL HAS GIVEN UP

No Appeal by the Divorce Lawyer From His Prison Sentence.

New York, June 13.—John D. Lindsay served notice upon District Attorney Jerome yesterday of the withdrawal of Abraham Hummel's appeal from the decision of the appellate division of the supreme court affirming his sentence of one year in the penitentiary. This means that Hummel intends to serve out his term.
It has been easy for him thus far.
He is still in the hospital.

Hummel's withdrawal of the appeal removes the only obstacle in the way of action by the Bar association upon his disbarment. His conviction of a misdemeanor was not in itself a disbarment, and formal action must be taken if he is to be fully removed from the New York legal profession.
Hummel is serving a term for conspiracy in the Dodge-Morse divorce case.

THAT LOST LICENSE

Was Replaced by Another and Couple Was Married.

Joseph Bradbury, a farmer, 70 years of age, residing at Beaman, and Dora Savage, a landress, were married at the home of Mrs. Polly Bryant Howe by Justice of the Peace Clark this afternoon.

On June 6, a marriage license was issued to the couple. The ceremony was to have been performed Tuesday afternoon. All preparations were made and the presiding judge summoned, but to the disgust of the intended groom the license became lost.
The ceremony could not be performed until a new license was ac-cured, which was done today and the couple was united in wedlock.

Informal Party Tonight

The members of the Country Club will enjoy their weekly informal party at the club house tonight, and all members are urged to be present.

Believed to Be Insane.

A stranger, giving his name as John Patterson, was arrested by the police last night and locked in jail, where he is confined today.

Patterson is said to be insane, his queer actions having caused this belief among those who have had dealings with him. He will be kept in jail for a few days until a change occurs.

Flags Will Be Displayed.

Tomorrow is Flag day, and in the children's room at the public library there will be an exhibition of the different flags of the United States, while in the reading room will be shown small silk flags of the different nations.

Class Meeting Postponed.

There will be no meeting of the Teachers' Training class until Friday evening, June 21.

A MATRIMONIAL BUREAU

STAD PASTOR OF MILWAUKEE CHURCH TO ESTABLISH AN AGENCY.

WILL MARRY ALL WHO SO DESIRE

The Ceremony May Be in Either German or English, Long or Short —In fact, Any Old Thing That is Desirable.

Milwaukee, June 13.—Milwaukee is to have an official matrimonial office. The minister who is to introduce the innovation is the Rev. Samuel Moldenhauer, a staid Lutheran clergyman whose record of thirty-three years and one month in one pulpit would seem to clear the promoter of the new venture of any suspicion of flightiness.

It is a serious business proposition with the Rev. Mr. Moldenhauer, and he is entering into it with all sincerity and the idea of making it an income yielding venture.

"I am prepared to marry people, either in German or English, and I can make the service fifteen, ten or five minutes long, or even briefer, according to the desires of the principles and the time at their disposal," said the Rev. Mr. Moldenhauer, and he is advertising to that effect.

COL. ROBINSON QUITE ILL

Will Be Brought From McAllister and Taken to Mayhood.

Col. J. A. Robinson, former steward at the Elks' club, is quite ill with fever at McAllister Springs. He was taken down last Saturday, and has grown worse each day since then.

Mrs. Robinson left this morning for the Springs and will return this afternoon with her husband, who will be taken to Maywood hospital for treatment.

Col. Robinson has a legion of friends in Sedalia, and also in Central and Western Missouri, who trust that the attack is not as serious as feared, and that he will soon be able to again mingle with his old-time comrades.

AN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

Prompt Use of Stomach Pump Saved Patient's Life.

A well-known Sedalian, a gentleman who has held several good positions but is now out of employment, attempted suicide by taking poison late last night.

He fell unconscious on Ohio street, but two physicians were summoned, and the prompt use of a stomach pump was all that saved the patient's life.

The gentleman is all right today, and it is believed his experience of last night is all that he cares for along that line.

Death of B. F. Thornton.

Street Commissioner Henry Kruse today received a letter from a daughter at Pueblo, Colo., informing him of the death of B. F. Thornton, a former coal oil dealer here, at his home in Pueblo on the night of the 5th inst.
He is survived by his widow, two sons and two daughters.

THE WOODSON CASE GIRL

SHE WEPT AS SHE DENIED THE TALES THAT WERE TOLD REGARDING HER.

THE ACCUSED DOCTOR INNOCENT

Miss Minnie Everline Declares She Paid for Jewels Doctor is Said to Have Bought—Has Quit the Asylum.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 13.—Miss Minnie Everline, supervisorsess at the state insane hospital, who is named by Miss Kate Boyle, the discharged nurse, in the charges against Dr. C.
R. Woodson, the superintendent, gave her testimony before the hospital board yesterday.

She sobbingly denied the charges made by Miss Boyle and others who testified last week, and showed by receipted bills and witnesses that she had purchased jewelry at a local store that Miss Boyle said had been given to Miss Everline by Dr. Woodson. As to the diamond earrings mentioned by Miss Boyle, the witness said:

"When Dr. Woodson and his daughter went east last summer I asked him to buy me two diamonds for earrings, and I gave him the money to get them. Here is the check I gave him. His daughter knew about it, and she told me she helped him pick the diamonds. I asked him to buy them for me in the east, as they could be gotten cheaper there. Mrs. Evans, the matron, saw me make out the check."

"Dr. Woodson never gave me a present in his life. I have been here nearly ten years, and he never, so far as I know, acted improperly in any way. I never was a confidant of Miss Boyle. I never any of the things in my room, and as to the statement Miss Boyle made about the flowers, flowers are sent to the girls daily and I distribute them.
I do like any other girl would do, take a few of them for my room."

Miss Everline has tendered her resignation as supervisorsess and she will return to her home in Garnet, Kansas.

Dr. Woodson began his statement before the board late in the afternoon. The investigation probably will close with Dr. Woodson's testimony today.

MEMORIAL SERVICES

To Be Held by the Maccabee Lodges Sunday Afternoon.

The memorial services of the Ladies and Knights of the Maccabee lodges of the city will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Rev.
James Parsons preaching the memorial sermon.

Special music will be furnished by the choir, and after the close of the ceremonies at the church committees representing the various bodies will go to the cemetery, where the graves of the deceased members will be strewn with flowers, in accordance with the custom and obligation to ever keep green the memory of the departed.

TAGGART'S BROTHER DEAD

Took An Overdose of Chloral and Was Found in Bed.

Wooster, Ohio, June 13.—D. S. Taggart, a brother of Captain E. F. Taggart, of divorce fame, died at Orrville yesterday from the effects of an overdose of chloral.

He was in Wayne county on a visit home, being located in Reno, Nevada, where he was a prominent railro-man.

He was found dead in bed by members of his family.

Hand Badly Lacerated.

Bell Hutchinson badly lacerated the upper portion of his right hand at his store on Ohio street yesterday afternoon, while working with a gasoline stove oven, the tendons being severed. Dr. W. J. Ferguson was summoned, and, assisted by Dr. Titsworth, sewed the wound at the Maywood hospital last evening. The Mr. Hutchinson is confined at home.

JUST A LITTLE COMPLAINT.

At the entrance to the alley between the Democrat-Sentinel building and the Crawford building is a large depression in the pavement that is positively a disgrace to the city. The hole is right on the sidewalk, and for days after a rain is always filled with muddy, stagnant water, making it impossible for two to walk abreast without one getting their shoes covered with filth. In the case of ladies is even worse.

The attention of the mayor has been called to this nuisance, and the street commissioner has been asked to remedy it, thus far without result.
Just about half an hour's time of one man would put the pavement in proper shape.

This indifference, carelessness or inefficiency?

PARTY FEUDS.

Our republican friends are very loath to point out the difference of opinion amongst democrats as to men and measures, with a view of preventing the unification of the democratic party. They cannot, therefore, complain if their own factional feuds are exploited, especially as they are asserting themselves most aggressively and obtrusively. These republican feuds are most prevalent in New York, Delaware, Massachusetts, Pen-sylvania, Ohio, Kansas, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa and California.

In New York there is the Hughes and anti-Hughes factions; in Delaware Addicks is still a bone of contention; in Massachusetts the tariff revisionists and stand-patters are expressing themselves in anything but kindly mood about each other; in Maryland the Penrose ring is battling the reformers and graft is so valued that the honest republican are becoming more and more scattered; in Ohio the Taft and Foraker factions are trying to destroy each other; in Kansas there is a complication of corruption and personal politics; in Minnesota it is the people against the machine tinkered with too much railroad boodle; in North Dakota the Northern Pacific railroad ring has been knocked out and is ready to turn the state over to the democrats rather than see the reformers successful; in South Dakota the Gamble and Kittredge factions are preparing for another death struggle; in Iowa the Cummins and anti-Cummins rings are opposing each other on whether the tariff shall continue to shelter the trusts and who shall succeed Allison as senator; in California the Harriman railroad ring has the party by the throat and there is an era of corruption and fighting, with several prominent republicans in danger of indictment and conviction. In fact the states of the republican party is united by exception and it is almost impossible to name one where charges of grafting and rottenness are not openly made by some faction against another faction.

These republican feuds are disgusting the honest voters of that party and it is evident that it will be more and more difficult to get all the elements necessary to success combined on whoever is nominated.
The bitterness engendered will also affect the nomination and election of local tickets and there is where democrats will have a great opportunity in some of the doubtful states and congressional districts.

But to take advantage of these differences amongst republicans the democrats must unite and while cleaving to the essential principles of democracy can afford to compromise or lay by their disagreements on policies until they have defeated the common enemy.

SENATOR KNOX ENTERS THE RACE.

The announcement of Senator Knox's candidacy for president, following his endorsement for the republican nomination by the Pennsylvania state convention, opens up new speculation upon the forces that are at work in the administration party for its control next year. There is every reason to believe that Pennsylvania offers Knox as a bona fide aspirant for the nomination. That his candidacy, with reference to the position of Roosevelt, is advanced in good faith, is, however, open to grave doubt. While they were compelled, both by public opinion and as a matter of policy to endorse the national administration, it is an open secret that the men who are in control of the republican organization in Pennsylvania are opposed to Roosevelt and the things he stands for. The crafty Penrose, a typical political boss, and his astute colleague, Senator Knox, who was chosen by and represents the corporations that Matt Quay formerly represented, are hostile to the president, the latter openly and in a dignified manner, while the former does his work secretly and treacherously.

Mr. Knox is what might be called the last hope of the ultra-conservatives in the republican party. Foraker and Fairbanks are preferences of the anti-Roosevelt forces.

The Ohio senator seems to have been disqualified before the race is started by his blundersome attack upon Secretary Taft, which has practically rendered it certain that the latter will have the vote of Ohio in the national convention. Of the three reactionist representatives, Fairbanks unquestionably is the best proposition for the "boxers." It is doubtful if Knox could secure the support of a single delegation outside of Pennsylvania. His corporation alliances, his blank record as attorney general, his saucy opposition to Mr.
Roosevelt and his utter lack of personal following and popularity, place him far beyond the range of presidential consideration.

Mr. Fairbanks, on the other hand, while not overburdened with personal magnetism, has few political enemies, is close to the president and on the best of terms with him and with a comparatively clean political record, all of which overshadows largely his extreme conservatism and his sympathy for the "interests." With Knox out of the way he might secure the votes of Pennsylvania, Indiana, New York, and other eastern states early in the balloting, which would make him a formidable candidate against Taft or any other advanced republican.

At any rate, the "boxers" have Pennsylvania and Indiana under their thumb, and that is a great deal to start with.

THE BIG MAN OF THE SUN

VENERABLE PATRIARCH WHO SPENDS HIS YEARS STAR-ING AT OLD SOL.

STORY FROM THE BALTIMORE SUN

"I Am the Son of the Sun," He Cried, "and Was Born With His Blessing, Hence Shall Travel All Over the World."

I have today, writes a correspondent at Messina, in Sicily, been afforded an opportunity of interviewing one of the strangest characters in the world, says the Baltimore Sun.
He is known to everybody as "l'Uo-mo del Sole." (The Man of the Sun.)

In appearance he is a venerable pa-triarh with a face tanned almost black by the sun, and with long, snow white hair, falling to his shoulders from both sides of the dividing line in the middle of the head. This as well as his long white beard, is always well brushed.

This man spends his time from morning till night in worshipping the sun. He gazes with wide-open, unblinking eyes at the ball of fire daily flooding this city with brilliant sunshine. He will gaze fixedly for hours at Old Sol, and in doing so carry on a conversation with it and utter prayers invoking the protection of his god. He does not suffer in the slightest by the terrible gaze, and to prove it he has, after a half hour's fixed stare at the sun, timed by my watch, seen plainly and described the smallest article I have pointed out to him.

Scientists, physicians, oculists and surgeons from every part of Italy have come to examine his wonderful eyes, which look as if they were attacked by some dread disease. They are, however, as good as those of the average man, but not the same.
His orbits are remarkable by reason of their abnormally large pupils. The white part of the eye is crystal-like and strangely bloodshot.

Camarotto, the patriarch, is 86 years of age, of medium height, and robust, eating and sleeping well. The people of Messina have the greatest respect for him, and woe betide the youth who takes it into his head to ridicule l'Uomo del Sole. The men at work in the port, loading and discharging the ships, join together in making a weekly allowance out of their very meager pay to the sun worshipper, who is also called in the Sicilian dialect "u filusuru" (the philosopher.)

His coat is always unbuttoned to give prominence to a remarkably colored waistcoat. His socks are always the same. One is white, the other red. One is short, the other long, and they cover like gaiters the ends of his trousers. The right foot is shod with a patent black boot, the left with a brown shoe.

At the head of his stick are tied three handkerchiefs of different colors. He calls this his talisman. With it he stops tempests, hurricanes and thunderstorms, which he says are signs of the fury and anger of his god, the sun.

When it rains he comes out hatless, kneels in the streets of Messina, with arms extended, and cries "Basta, basta. Oh, sole mio!" (Enough, enough, oh, my sun.) The traffic respectfully stops until he has finished his prayer and the waving of his magic wand in the air. "If it were not for me, oh, parde mio! what would happen to poor Messina, to poor Sicily, for it would most certainly be destroyed by torrents of water."

If he sees a lady hold up a parasol Camarotto will snatch it and close it. Infamous one," he cries, "why walk in the shade when the sun is out?"

The lady may indignantly seek redress, but the sympathies of crowd and police are all with the man who can look at the sun with eyes open.
The rent of the house wherein he lives is paid for him, the food he eats at any restaurant, the wine he drinks are all given him gratis by the proprietor who is honored by the presence of the sun worshipper.

With great difficulty I induced him to speak about himself.

"I am the son of the sun," he cried, once he was roused. "I was born with his blessing. I speak to the sun, the god of the world. I am his chosen, sent by him to preach his power, and I shall continue to do so forever and ever, for I shall not die.
I shall travel all over the world, to France, to England, to America, to follow the sun, to preach its power, to gaze at it, to be bathed in golden light."

"I am daily defending my fellow-men from the sun. They ungratefully call me mad. Let them do so. They can not look at it for hours and

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM

Is the Only Possible Way of Having an Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff.
There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ, and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but New-bro's Herpicide. Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co.,

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my book on either dyspepsia, the heart or the kidneys. Troubles of the stomach, heart or kidneys are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause.
Weak stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean stomach weakness, always. And the heart, and kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write

HANGINGS IN MISSOURI

NO LESS THAN SEVEN ARE SET FOR THURSDAY, THE 27TH OF JUNE.

BOONE COUNTY IS TO HAVE ONE

Harry Vaughn, Edward Raymond and George Ryan Must First Be Pardoned Before They Can Be Executed.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 13.—If sentences imposed by the supreme court of Missouri are carried out, seven men will be hanged in this state Thursday, June 27. They are: John King, a St. Louis negro, who killed a negro woman; Harry Vaughn and Edward Raymond, St. Louis convicts, and George Ryan, a convict from Kansas City, the three having killed two prison officers in an attempt to escape from the penitentiary; John and Ameleek Brooks, brothers, who killed a bystander during a quarrel in Iron county, and Tom Clay, a Boone county negro, who killed another negro in a saloon fight.

Governor Folk last evening commuted the death penalty imposed upon David Long, of Penicott county, to life imprisonment in the penitentiary. Long was under sentence of death from the supreme court and was to have been executed today. He shot and killed a neighboring farmer as the result of a quarrel about pigs. Both were former residents of Tennessee, and a large number of residents of that state, as well as Penicott county, this state, asked for clemency for him.

The attorneys for John King have filed an application for a respite with the governor, but nothing has been done in his case.

Tom Clay, the other negro under sentence of death, has been granted one respite, and Judge Alexander Waller, before whom he was tried and convicted, has written a letter to the governor asking that this sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.

The relatives and friends of the Brooks brothers have been active the last few days in securing recommendations that their sentences be commuted to life imprisonment.

In order to carry out the sentence of the supreme court it will be necessary for Governor Folk to pardon Ryan, Vaughn and Raymond before they are taken from the prison to be hanged by the sheriff of Jefferson City. This is the law on the subject, strange as it may appear.

All three are under sentences for robbery, Vaughn having been sent up from St. Louis for thirty-five years, Ryan from Kansas City for twelve years and Raymond from St. Louis for ten years. Sheriff Scott has not made any arrangements for their execution, but it is probable that the three will be executed from the same gallows and at the same time.

Prosecuting Attorney J. G. Slate has informed Pardon Attorney Mosby that he will not recommend a respite for these convicts, as there is no shadow of question about their guilt. The Rev. Fr. Giesert, of this city, visits them often, and to him they talk quite freely, but do not care to be bothered with others save their attorneys. They are kept in pretty close confinement, but allowed all the books they want to read and as much writing material as they wish.

To them and a companion two of the best officers of the penitentiary owe their deaths, while two others were wounded, in the most daring attempt that was ever made on the part of desperate convicts to escape from the prison. In regard to these three convicts it can be definitely stated as coming from Governor Folk that it will be useless to apply to him for a commutation to life imprisonment.

Other hangings set for the present month and July are: William Spangh, convicted of the murder of Sheriff Polk, of Iron county, sentenced to hang June 25, and F. Seymour Barrington, sentenced to be executed in St. Louis county, July 25. Efforts are being made in behalf of all these men to secure a commutation of the death penalty to life imprisonment.

A prompt, pleasant, good remedy for coughs and colds, is Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It is especially recommended for babies and children, but good for every member of the family. It contains no opiates and does not constipate. Contains honey and tar and tastes nearly as good as maple syrup. Children like it. Sold by Arlington pharmacy.

Sedaliaans at: Pertle Springs.

Writing of the druggists' convention the Warrensburg Star of Wednesday last these paragraphs:

Mrs. Oscar Ott's solo in costume was greatly enjoyed, as was the work of the inimitable Bob Combs and the irrepressible Wagner. Combs is a magician of no mean ability.

Harry Servant brought the attractive and valuable dispensing keg on exhibition by the Hire's Root Beer company for his Arlington pharmacy at Sedalia. It is a beauty.

Will Attend in a Body.

Members of Sedalia council No. 831, Knights of Columbus, will attend in a body the funeral of Prof. E. L. Friemel at Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, deceased having been an esteemed member of the order.

IS DEAF BLIND AND MUTE

WILLIAM REYNOLDS, A LAD OF 7 YEARS, NATIVE OF BUCK. EYE STATE.

DIFFICULT TO FIND HIM A HOME

Father Not Able to Care for the Lad, Mother Cannot Be Found, and Institutions Do Not Want Him.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, June 13.—William Reynolds, aged 7, blind, deaf and mute, is an elephant on the hands of the authorities.

He was sent from Logan county to the State Home for Feeble Minded Youth, but there he was rejected.

Next it was tried to dispose of him in Clark county. There the officials refused to care for him, and now Governor Harris will be appealed to by the probate judge of Logan and Clark counties for a home for the boy until the next legislature changes the law so as to admit him to some institution.

Logan county brought suit recently to mandamus the admission of the child into a blind asylum, but failed. The father, at Springfield, cannot care for the boy, and the mother cannot be found. The family formerly resided in Logan county.

STRIPPED TO THE SKIN

REV. FRANK MORTON HAWLEY, A KENTUCKY PRESBYTERIAN DIVINE.

MERCELESSLY FLOGGED HIM, TOO

Capitalist Whose Home He Had Invaded, It Is Alleged, Then Placed the Divine Aboard a Departing Train.

Fulton, Ky., June 13.—Rev. Frank Morton Hawley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and a most highly respected divine, of this city, was horsewhipped at midnight by W. W. Meadows, a leading capitalist, and driven from the city under threats of death.

The flogging, which has created the most profound sensation ever known in Fulton's history, came as an aftermath to the divorce suit of Mrs. Meadows, who but a few days ago filed a petition for divorce, alleging cruelty.

Rev. Hawley came to Fulton some two years ago from Charlottesville, N. C., and was a most popular young minister until a recent scene in the Hotel Meadows, when he was publicly denounced by Meadows as the wrecker of his home and forbidden further entrance to his household. The divorce suit followed and Hawley left the city.

When it became known that the preacher was expected home Meadows and a small party of his friends, all prominent citizens, quietly met the midnight train, slipped handcuffs upon Hawley's wrists, and, taking him to a vacant lot near the station, stripped the young minister for the terrible lashing that followed.

Although three buggy whips were worn to pieces upon his back and blood burst from the lacerated skin, Hawley uttered no whimper of pain and made no effort to escape beyond declaring his innocence.

After the bloody ordeal he was placed in a carriage, driven to the depot, placed upon an outgoing train and made to swear not to return to Fulton. No arrests have followed. The entire city is agog over the shocking affair.

SCRAMBLED EGGS IN HAIR

Husband Broke Twenty-Six of Them On Woman's Head.

Camden, N. J., June 13.—With her hair "done up" in scrambled eggs, Mrs. Tillie Davis sought justice at the office of Squire Roub here, charging her husband with assault and battery.

"Look at me, judge," she said, "see what Walter, my husband, did! The eggs in my hair I intended for mother to put them under the hens for hatching. There were twenty-six duck eggs, and he cracked them on my head."

Davis was apprehended and sent to jail in default of bail, but the woman did not like to see him gazing from behind the iron bars and secured a bondsman, and they left the jail together.

Met With Mrs. Laupheimer.

Mrs. Henry Laupheimer was hostess to the Whist club at her home yesterday afternoon. The first prize, a cut glass vase, went to Mrs. Lawrence Laupheimer, while the second prize, a cold meat fork, went to Mrs. Leopold Lovinger.

The guest prize, a hand-painted hat pin, went to Miss Bertha Lobenstein, of Warrensburg.

Refreshments of herring salad, sandwiches, olives, pickles, ice cream and cake were served.

Paid Their Fines.

Two drunks were fined $5 each by Police Judge Gresham today and each paid.

By Board of Health.

St. Louis, June 13.—The board of health will take up the Missouri pure food law, which goes into effect Saturday, at its meeting this afternoon. It is said the law makes certain regulations of such stringent character as to work hardship on many St. Louis firms, and the board is to discuss the action to be taken regarding its enforcement.

One of the features of the bill is the strict regulation regarding milk and cream. It is claimed by some of the dairymen, will put many of them out of business and result in an increase in the price of milk. The board may decide on a liberal interpretation in an effort to relieve the hardship which the rigid enforcement of the law will entail.

I'll stop your pain free. To show you first—before you spend a penny—what my Pink Pain Tablets can do, I will mail you free a trial package of them—Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets. Neuralgia, headache, toothache, period pains, etc., are due alone to blood congestion. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets simply kill pain by coaxing away the unnatural blood pressure. That is all. ## A CONTRAST OF NAVIES

THOSE OF THE UNITED STATES AND JAPAN ARE PUT UP SIDE BY SIDE.

NAVAL STRENGTH OF UNCLE SAM

Is Now Greater Than That of Japan, According to a Writer in Harper's Weekly, Published in New York.

Putting wholly aside that relation which proverbially exists between smoke and fire, this article assumes that there is no friction between the United States and Japan, says Harper's Weekly. But since there are many to assert that a conflict lies within the easy range of possibility, and as the navies of the two powers would in all certainty bear the initial brunt of such encounter, it may be interesting to cast up the relative naval strength of the two powers and to see wherein the advantage might rest.

Just now this country has a preponderance of naval strength. But that strength is mostly assembled on this side of the world, and with most of the seven seas washing between it and the mikado's far-away fleet. And contiguous to the mailed squadrons of the Rising Sun are those remote possessions of ours, the Philippines and the Hawaiian islands.

"I had rather," said Napoleon "see the English on the heights of Mont-matire than occupying Malta." The English occupied Malta and he died a British captive at St. Helena.

In one respect the Philippines, and the Hawaiian islands are to this country what Malta was then to France. And there is no well-informed military or navy officer who doubts but that Japan could now seize both and possession of them would have an immeasurable advantage, as their loss would deprive this country of bases of supplies, coaling stations and that big dry dock which was recently towed to Manila, itself a great asset in war.

One thing is certain. If Japan means to force a war on this country she must do it before the completion of the Panama canal, for after that waterway is cut she must needs be infinitely more powerful than she is at present to wage successful conflict with America.

But the completion of the canal is some years distant. To get back to the present. Owing to the fact that Japan made such short work of the czar's warships, it is popularly supposed that Japan has a very superior navy. The mikado's navy is doubtless all right. But competent observers who followed the Russo-Japanese war testify that it was not so much the excellence of Japanese preparedness, tactics and gunnery that won as it was the absence of these qualities on the Russian side.

"If Japan," said one of these to the writer, "ever goes against a first-rate naval power she will find the difference. It was not so much what the Japs did as what the Russians didn't do."

Matched, ship for ship, America could look with utmost complacency upon the outcome. But there is a time-worn adage about being the first on the spot with a superior force. In our Atlantic fleet we have now a battle ship armada that could undoubtedly destroy all of Japan's navy were the war declared tomorrow and this fleet in striking distance, with its bases of supplies and its coaling stations handy. But does any one doubt that Japan would instantly seize these stations, were this fleet to be ordered to the east. Then the advantage would rest with her, and in a ratio that cannot be approximated. Once more Napoleon and Malta. What American president but who would rather see a Jap army encamped on the Potomac than to see the mikado's flag waving over our Meads of the east. There could be no doubt of the fate of the one, but there would be serious doubts about the other.

Carrie Nation Arrested for Talking Before Saloon.

Washington, June 13.—Carrie Nation was arrested in Washington last night on a charge of disorderly conduct. She has made her home here for some months and this is the first real sensation she has created since she broke out in the senate gallery with a denunciatory speech and was ejected.

Last night she took up her station in front of a saloon bordering the red light district and began speaking against intemperance. Three policemen came along and arrested her. At the police station she said she was married, and her local residence was 217 D street, Northwest. Her occupation, she said, was "servant of God."

She asked how much collateral was wanted for her appearance in police court this morning and was told $20.

She reached beneath her outer skirt and drew forth a large roll of bills, from which she peeled off a twenty and handed it to the desk sergeant.

A DEMENTED MAN

He Interrupted Services and Was Kent in Jail.

East Liverpool, Ohio, June 13.—John Leonard, 68, an old soldier from Jefferson county, died in the City hospital here yesterday.

He had been in Chester, W. Va., since Sunday afternoon, having been arrested there for disturbing a religious meeting on Sunday afternoon by offering to bet the preacher, Dr. Lane, that East Liverpool would go "wet" at the coming election. He was ill and appeared to be demented.

Prominent citizens of Chester say the Law and Order League of that town caused his death by keeping him in jail when he ought to have been in the hospital. They would not consent to his removal and when finally the prosecuting attorney ordered it today the patient lived but 40 minutes after he had reached the hospital.

S.S.S. RIDES THE SYSTEM OF MALARIA

Malaria is an atmospheric poison which we unconsciously breathe into our system. The blood in its constant passage through the lungs absorbs the germs, and they destroy the rich, red corpuscles of this vital fluid and reduce it to such a weak, watery condition that it is unable to properly nourish the system, and disease gets a foothold. Then the symptoms of Malaria, such as pale, sallow complexions, weak vitality, poor appetite, deranged digestion, and perhaps chills and fever show that the trouble is affecting every part of the body. Malaria also affects the liver, producing a chronic state of biliousness, and often a long spell of fever follows when the blood becomes fully contaminated with the poison. Chronic Sores and Ulcers, boils, aches and pains, and skin affections of various kinds often result from this insidious disease if the poison is allowed to accumulate in the blood in sufficient quantities. Malaria must be removed from the system through the circulation, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. This great remedy goes down into the blood and drives out all germs, microbes and poisons, and permanently cures Malaria. S. S. S. not only cleanses the blood of the cause, but furnishes it with the healthful properties it needs, so that instead of a weak, germ-infected stream, spreading disease throughout the system, it becomes a rich, red fluid, nourishing the body and enabling it to resist disease. S. S. S. is also the greatest of all tonics, and builds up and invigorates the entire system while ridding the blood of the germs of Malaria. Persons who are suffering from Malaria will be pleased with the prompt and pleasant results produced by the use of S. S. S., and can take it with confidence because it is an absolutely safe medicine, being free from harmful minerals of any kind. Book on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

STRANGE STORY IS TOLD

TRAINMAN MEETS A BANDIT IN TEXAS AFTER A LAPSE OF 18 YEARS.

SAYS THERE CAN BE NO MISTAKE

Robber, Securing $25,000 in Express Car, Lost His Mask and the Messenger Saw the Man's Face.

Galveston, Tex., June 12.—A merchant and respected citizen of Houston was confronted yesterday by John T. Dickey, who declares he positively identified the merchant as one of the train robbers who held up a train and robbed the express company of about $25,000 eighteen years ago.

Decoy was the Wells-Fargo express messenger on the Houston and Texas Central line and the holdup took place on the night of September 24, 1889, ten miles south of Fort Worth.

Two robbers did the work, and for half an hour the express messenger was face to face with the man who robbed the express car while his companion covered the engineer and fireman and messenger with a revolver.

The robber who emptied the contents of the safe had lost his mask, and, while ransacking the packages, gazed and joked the messenger and trainmen. Dickey made a study of this man's features and voice and declares he could recognize either among a thousand men.

He has not been in south Texas for fifteen years, and upon entering a store yesterday he was astonished to be greeted by the train robber.

The features had changed slightly, but the voice is the same as of that fatal night. He asked the storekeeper many questions, which he answered readily, until Dickey bluntly inquired where he was in September, 1889, the storekeeper nearly collapsed, but recovering himself, denied the charge.

He has offered, Dickey says, to restore the amount stolen from the express company with interest, if the case be dropped, but the story leaked out to the newspapers and prosecutions may follow.

Mr. George Hood and wife visited home folks Saturday night and Sunday.

There will be children's day services at Union church the first Sunday in July.

Mrs. Amanda Farris, whose long illness was mentioned before, died at her home near Lookout June 9th, of lung trouble. She was 22 years old and had been married about two years. She leaves an infant son and a young husband, who will mourn her untimely demise. She was a Christian woman, having united with the Olive Branch Baptist church in 1891.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Joe Dewitt at the Union church this morning at 11 o'clock. He chose for the subject of his remarks these words, "Prepare to meet thy God." There was a lengthy procession of neighbors, friends and sorrowing relatives who turned out to pay the last tribute to the departed, and many and very pretty were the floral offerings. After the last hymn had been sung, when the last goodbye was over, then the casket was carried out to the cemetery by the pallbearers. Then followed the benediction, which was very impressive toward each individual, causing them to realize its true sense, that life is very uncertain, even for the young, and that death is sure to come.

CHRONIC DISEASES!

Long and extensive experience in the treatment of Chronic Diseases enables me to guarantee you a CURE in many cases that have been abandoned by family physicians as INCURABLE. The TRUTH of the statement I daily VERIFY. My office is especially equipped for making a thorough, searching, accurate, scientific examination of every man or woman who comes to me for treatment. If a doctor thoroughly understands your case it is then an easy matter to give you the proper treatment. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES will I accept a case for treatment and hold out hopes unless I am convinced that my modern methods will give satisfactory results.

CONSULTATION FREE AND CONFIDENTIAL.

If you have any Chronic, Long-standing or Stubborn Disease, you should call at my office for examination and advice. I treat all Chronic, Nervous, Blood, Skin, Special and Private Diseases of Men and Women.

REGARDING RAILROADS

MISSOURI STATE OFFICIALS WILL RESIST SUIT OF RAILWAYS.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Despite the announcement that the railroads would resist the enforcement of the 2-cent rate law and that resistance would also be made to the maximum freight law, Governor Folk is not inclined to believe that either will be annulled through the injunction proceedings which the companies are to bring in the federal court at Kansas City, says the Jefferson City Democrat. He could not be induced to go into details and was unwilling to be quoted at all, but intimated there could be no doubt of the state's resistance of such a course on the part of the railroads.

Attorney General Hadley is not in the city tonight, but it is surmised he and the governor had a conference before his departure and that a line of resistance has been agreed upon. No announcement of the plans, however, can be obtained until such a contingency is brought about. Some of the state officials express the belief that but slight opposition will be made to the reduced passenger rate, and one of them declared it to be his opinion that not later than Saturday, the law going into effect on Friday, the roads generally would be selling tickets at two cents.

A great deal, of course, depends upon whether the railroads secure their injunctions from the federal court. Should these be denied such action as the state has been preparing to take will be abandoned and the matter of prosecutions of violations of either of the laws will be left with the prosecuting attorneys in the several counties throughout the state.

Inspected the Line.

R. H. Oglesby, John A. Knott and Frank Wigham, members of the state board of railway and warehouse commissioners, were here yesterday afternoon, arriving at 4 o'clock, and made an inspection trip over the Warsaw line of the Missouri Pacific, finding the track in a much better condition than it was on their previous inspection trip.

The commissioners were accompanied by Mr. M. L. Byers, of St. Louis, chief engineer of maintenance of way of the Missouri Pacific.

Rock Island Freight Men Strike.

About 125 freight clerks, freight handlers, yard clerks and platform clerks in the offices of the Rock Island at Burr Oak struck in Chicago yesterday because the management refused to give official recognition to their union.

During the afternoon the company posted a notice in the office to the effect that the men would be given until Friday morning to return to work.

Strike War Not Settled.

A rumor was in circulation yesterday that the tinner's strike at the Missouri Pacific shops had been settled, but from a reliable source it is learned that such is not the case, and that the prospects for a settlement are not very bright.

Hospital Arrivals.

Following are new arrivals at the Katy hospital:

Frank Haymer, train porter, Smithville, Texas.

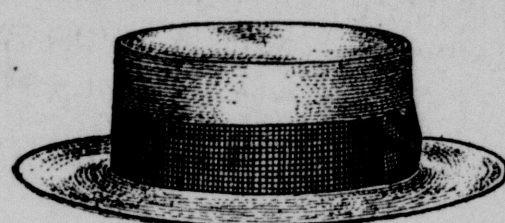

C. B. Roberts, bridgeman, Parsons, Kan.

William Butcher, section foreman, Kansas City Junction, Mo.

Automatic Couplers.

Missouri Pacific engines Nos. 6508 and 5539 were turned out of the shops yesterday, after undergoing repairs, and are being broken in today between Sedalia and Tipton.

Chief Dispatcher O. F. Fowler, of the Katy, will return tonight from a visit with relatives at Walnut, Kan.

Roadmaster Tom Warren, of the Katy, went to Post Oak today.

Joe Bowers, Jr., clerk at the Missouri Pacific shops, is home from a few days' visit with his sister, Mrs. E. T. Hodges, at Cairo, Ill., and resumed work at the shops yesterday.

F. M. Plake, a civil engineer from Chanute, Kan., has been appointed to succeed H. C. Reeder, promoted, on the Missouri Pacific, and accompanied by the latter, went to Knob Noster today.

William Pelstring, a Missouri Pacific telegraph operator from Lee's Summit, today "bumped" J. H. Cook from the second trick at the local office. Mr. Cook returned to Lee's Summit today.

The Katy's high line train, with eleven cars, became stranded at the Third street crossing this morning, and a switch engine was sent to relieve it from its predicament, after which the train proceeded westward.

F. L. True, former telegrapher at the Missouri Pacific station, left this morning for Los Angeles, Cal., to accept a position with the Southern Pacific railway. His family accompanied him as far as Kansas City, and from there goes to Des Moines, Ia., to visit relatives before going to Los Angeles.

LEFT OFFICE A POOR MAN

But Now $8,000 is Demanded From Ex-Treasurer Fisher.

Mt. Vernon, Ind., June 13.—The commissioners of Posey county have made a peremptory demand upon ex-County Treasurer Henry Fisher, of St. Phillips, to make restitution in the amount of $8,000, which the commissioners allege is due the county from the ex-treasurer.

Fisher left office in January, 1903. Recently he employed an expert from Evansville to go over his books, and the expert reported they were correct. The commissioners declined to accept the report, and have made a demand upon Mr. Fisher to pay back $8,000, which is a part of the state school fund, and interest that cannot be accounted for.

Fisher was elected as a democrat, and served as county treasurer for four years. He entered office in good circumstances, but left the office a poor man. He says he is innocent of wrong doing, and that he has not received credit for the money he turned over to his successor when he went out of office.

A GIRL'S LETTER

Miss Rose Hurst, 733 Harris Appleton, Wis., writes Some of Interest to All Women

Read What She Says

"I WANT to say a word for Peruna for systemic catarrh and trust others who read this may try it and receive the same good from it that I did. 'I had been ailing for a long time and nothing seemed to do me any good, although I tried many doctors and many medicines. I had become so bad that there was no pleasure in living. 'I was finally asked by a friend to try Peruna, which I did, with many misgivings. What was my delight, after taking the first bottle, to see a great change for the better and I kept on improving until completely recovered. 'I now feel like a new woman. It has done wonders for me and I gladly recommend it to others.'—Rose Hurst. No ailing woman can fail to be interested in the above testimonial. Miss Hurst was persuaded by a friend to try Peruna, and she is now perfectly well and feels like another woman. Such is her story in brief.

HERE TO ATTEND FUNERAL

That of Prof. L. E. Friemel On Friday Morning.

Leo and Ernest Friemel, the former of Ryan, I. T., and the latter of Fort Worth, Tex., also Otto and Arthur Friemel, of St. Louis, arrived here last night to attend the funeral of their father, Prof. L. E. Friemel, whose sad death at Warrensburg was told in detail in yesterday's Democrat-Sentinel.

Mrs. Koerner, of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly Miss Alma Friemel, is reported critically ill and will not be able to attend the funeral.

Richard Haug, a contractor of Kansas City, and wife, the latter a sister of Mrs. Joseph Zoernig, of this city, also arrived here last night to attend the funeral, which will be held from Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

MAN WAS DROWNED

The Bridge and Buggy Was Upset.

Springfield, Ill., June 13.—David S. Griffiths, mayor of Springfield, was drowned at noon yesterday. Peter Jacobs, chief of the fire department, narrowly escaped the same fate at the same time.

The accident occurred on the farm of E. W. Walker, nine and one-half miles southeast of Springfield, when the mayor and fire chief were attempting to cross a submerged bridge over a small slough. The horse they were driving missed the bridge and upset their buggy into the water.

Mayor Griffiths was so entangled with the buggy that he sank at once. Chief Jacobs sank twice before he was able to seize a plank in the bridge and draw himself out of the water.

As soon as Chief Jacobs realized that he could offer no assistance he hurried to the Walker farm house and gave the alarm.

A REVENGEFUL WIFE

She Charges a Negro With Attacking a White Girl.

Lexington, Ky., June 13.—To even up an old score with her husband, Burnis Young, a negro, his wife, Matilda, went to the residence of Nimrod Coburn, a prominent farmer of Bath county, and accused her husband of attempting to assault Coburn's 12-year-old daughter, Carrie.

Young was arrested an hour later by the sheriff and narrowly escaped lynching at the hands of angered citizens. The child denies the accusation made against the culprit, but on account of the source from which it came credence is put in it.

There are two negroes in jail at Ovingville charged with criminal assault.

A PLEASANT OUTING

That of Sedalia Ladies at the Home of Mrs. Dr. Evans.

To the Democrat-Sentinel.

The hospitable suburban home of Mrs. Dr. W. H. Evans, six miles northeast of the city, was the scene of a most enjoyable occasion Tuesday, May 11th, when fifty-five ladies of the Missionary society of the Broadway Presbyterian church assembled for both pleasure and business.

Those going by train and in conveyances were greeted by the hostesses in the beautiful grove, which was used as the picnic grounds.

The contents of the well filled baskets disposed of, the regular society meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Clagett. A most interesting session over, the elegant home of Mrs. Evans, near by, was thrown open to the guests, the hostesses being assisted in entertaining by her daughters. During the course of the afternoon refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and all too soon the sinking sun warned the guests that the time of departure was near at hand.

Grateful to our friends for such contribution to our happiness, and wishing our hostess many years of life in which to enjoy her peaceful home, we took our departure.—Secretary.

Twelve years in the Soda Water business, and to the best of my knowledge and belief I have not lost one single customer because they thought they could buy something better elsewhere. It has always been because they could buy cheaper elsewhere, or because the other fellows spend more money with us. Some caterers seem to think if they can hand you something you don't want, they have made a good sale. That is a poor way to make friends. A better way is to serve what is called for, and in case of doubt just give them Crawford's. It's always first class.
